

A request for AFA membership

To: Mr. Shimpei Murakami , chairperson , AFA.

Lao Farmer Network is a national level organizations of farmer organizations in Laos with an aim to improve cooperation among farmer organizations in the area of information sharing, learning, improve access to funds/markets and policy dialogue.

With the invitation from AFA, LFN is pleased to join AFA as a member because we believe that it will strengthening our organization and network in order to help us to achieve more. Moreover, we believe that we can help other member to learn from us as much as we learn from them, and together our voice will be stronger to engage with government at national and regional levels.

We hope that you consider our request.
